It was sent to rhythmic radio on December 13, 2016 by Grand Hustle Records and Epic Records as the third single from Scott's second studio album Birds in the Trap Sing McKnight. On October 12, 2018, the soundtrack to The Hate U Give included a song. Following the release of Scott and his fellow rappers and his influence in April 2020 on the Kid Cudi chart for The Scotts, the song - along with Scott's single Sicko Mode in August 2018, from his third studio album Astroworld - has seen a resurgence of streams and sales, reaching chart debuts or new peaks in many countries, including Australia, France, Germany, Italy and Switzerland. (quote needed) Background When Travis Scott was doing an interview with Billboard about the album and how he connected with Kendrick Lamar for Goosebumps he said: I met him at the MTV Video Music Awards one year and he came up to me and was just like, Yo, man, I fuck with your music. It's super doping and inspiring. I was like, Oh, this is the best rapper in the world - he fucks my music! This is one of the things that made me want to keep working on my music and try to keep it going because I'm not the most rap rap ass nigga. It's not me, but I love Kendrick's music. I really like Andre's music. I really love Ye's shit. I really love Jay's shit. I like rappers. It's just doping that these guys came into the world of La Flame to go down on some sick punches. The clip was released exclusively on Apple Music on April 3, 2017. The film was directed by BRTHR, who also directed a similar music video for The Weeknd's Party Monster. The Goosebumps chart-topping debuted at number 92 on the U.S. Billboard Hot 100 during the week of September 24, 2016. The song re-entered the chart several times and reached number 32 on the chart, becoming its third top 40 hit. In January 2017, the song was certified by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) to sell more than 500,000 equivalent units in the United States. On March 28, 2017, Travis announced that the song had gone platinum. Live On January 21, 2017, Travis Scott performed Goosebumps on Jimmy Kimmel Live.
